DEAN'S MESSAGE

FOR THE FOURTEENTH YEAR IN A ROW, MORE THAN 50 PERCENT OF ALUMNI

participated in our annual giving campaign. Almost 8,900 donors contributed $9.54 million to the Law School through annual giving alone. When we include bequests and special gifts, the Law School Foundation received $23.6 million this past fiscal year. These remarkable numbers reflect the strength of the Law School community and your affection for this special institution. Each gift reminds us that you value the role UVA Law has played in your life and allows us to provide a transformative education to students for years to come.

Your support enables UVA Law students to learn from leading scholars and legal practitioners in classroom, clinical, and experiential settings. Your gifts sustain the unmatched student experience unique to the Law School—our wide variety of academic journals, student organizations, and activities coupled with a devoted team of student services professionals who scour the country for the best students, support them throughout their years here, and send them off to exciting and fulfilling careers. We are not alone in seeing the fruits of your investments in this law school: we once again rank #1 for best professors and student quality of life in Princeton Review's law school rankings.

This year, as we continue to celebrate the Law School's bicentennial and begin to commemorate our centennial of coeducation, we see how deeply this institution has changed in terms of who it educates and how. We also see how much remains constant in terms of the Law School's values of academic excellence, service to others, and the importance of community.

This annual report highlights the amazing things your generosity makes possible and demonstrates our shared commitment to draw from our past and Honor the Future. Thank you for being part of this historic journey. With your continued support, we will make our third century the best yet.

Risa L. Goluboff, Dean
Arnold H. Lean Professor of Law
Professor of History

LEADERSHIP REPORT

We are pleased to report that the 54th Annual Giving Campaign finished with 8,871 donors and a participation rate of 50.8%. Gift revenue totaled $23.6 million, of which $4.9 million was unrestricted.

This is the fourteenth year in a row we have exceeded 50% participation. Our 50.8% participation rate is also (almost certainly) the highest among all law schools in the country, signaling to our peers, prospective students, and others that our alumni appreciate their education and believe in our stewardship of the Law School.

Alumni from the classes of 1934 to 2021 contributed, with the classes of 1957 and 1974 surpassing 70% participation, and 36 classes meeting or exceeding 50% participation. In regional results, alumni in seven geographic regions finished with a participation rate of at least 60%, while Alabama's Birmingham/Huntsville/Montgomery region topped the list with 67%. This year's graduation gift campaign finished with 88% of the Class of 2019 making a pledge of future support.

The following is a summary of the Foundation's financial position and a report of the Alumni Association for the year ending June 30, 2019:

LAW SCHOOL ENDOWMENT AND TOTAL ASSETS

The Foundation holds more than $502 million in endowed and $24 million in non-endowed funds for the benefit of the Law School. In addition, the University holds $77 million and the Jefferson Scholars Foundation holds $4.7 million in endowed funds designated for the Law School. The combined value of these assets at June 30 exceeds $607 million.

2018–2019 CONTRIBUTIONS

Gifts received by the Law School Foundation in fiscal year 2019, including annual giving, bequests, and special gifts, totaled $23.6 million. The 54th Annual Giving Campaign raised $9.54 million, of which $4.9 million was for unrestricted current use.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Last year, Dean Risa Goluboff attended alumni events in Atlanta, Birmingham, Charlottesville, Dallas, Los Angeles, New York City, Northern Virginia, Palo Alto, Princeton, N.J., Richmond, San Francisco, and Washington, D.C. Additionally, the Law School Foundation and Alumni Association hosted receptions in Cary, N.C., Charleston, S.C., Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus, Miami, Nashville, Pittsburgh, and St. Louis.

This fall, the Law School Foundation and Alumni Association will host alumni receptions in Boston, Charleston, WV., Charlottesville, Chicago, Dallas, Houston, Louisville, New York City, Norfolk, Philadelphia, Portland, Ore., Salt Lake City, Seattle, Washington, D.C., and Wilmington, Del.

The 2019 reunions were a great success, with more than 1,200 alumni and guests in attendance. The 2020 reunion weekend is scheduled for May 8–10 for the classes of 1970, 1975, 1980, 1985, 1990, 1995, 2000, 2005, 2010, and 2015, and for the Lile Law Society (all alumni who have celebrated their 50th reunions). As always, all alumni are welcome to attend reunion weekend events regardless of their class year.

This year's Annual Report highlights how you give, why you give, and more:

- Meet the recipient of the Thomas G. Slater, Jr. '69 Scholarship, first-year Quinn Conrad. Conrad is a VMI graduate and U.S. Army officer and is the first Law student to receive the scholarship which honors Slater and his years on VMI's board of visitors.
- Catch up with another inaugural scholarship recipient: Kate Watlington '11. Watlington was awarded the Law Alumnae Scholarship for her three years at UVA Law. Her career as a strategic advisor to project sponsors, investors, and financiers in the aspects of development and financing of power, oil, gas, and more, landed her in Charlotte, N.C., by way of Hong Kong and Singapore.
- More than 1,130 alumni and friends made gifts on Giving to Hoos Day totaling over $328,750. Gifts came from alumni in 41 states and 6 countries. In honor of their 30th reunion, the Class of 1989 matched up to $200 of each gift made that day—providing over $107,000 in matching funds, to bring the total to $436,374!

The Law School may have peers, but our community is unique. You make it special through your loyalty and affection, as well as your generosity.

With our best wishes,

100% PARTICIPATION PROGRAM

Initiated in 1993, the 100% Participation Program challenges and recognizes firms and companies (with at least five Virginia graduates) that achieve 100% participation in annual giving. Because many firms and companies are in multiple cities, offices with five or more graduates are recognized in the program. Those interested in achieving 100% participation should contact Helen Snyder '87, Chief Operating Officer, at (877) 307-0158, or at snyder@law.virginia.edu.

WHY YOU GIVE

Thomas G. Slater, Jr. '69, VMI '66
Special Counsel, Hunton Andrews Kurth, Richmond

When R. Hewitt Pate '87 wanted to honor his friend and former colleague Thomas G. Slater, Jr. '69, he created an endowed UVA Law scholarship in his name. Because Slater is Virginia Military Institute Class of 1966 and former member and president of the VMI board of visitors, Pate asked that the scholarship be awarded to a VMI graduate, preferably one also serving in the U.S. armed forces.

First-year Quinn Conrad is the inaugural recipient of the Thomas G. Slater, Jr. '69 Scholarship. Conrad earned her bachelor's degree and U.S. Army commission from VMI in 2019. She serves as a field artillery second lieutenant in the Virginia National Guard. Once she earns her JD, she'll serve in the JAG Corps.

“Since high school, I have had a passion to serve in the military as well as pursue a career in law, and I am ecstatic to now be doing both.

“I chose UVA for the same reasons I chose VMI—I wanted to learn and train in one of the most challenging environments I could. I wanted to be in a community that held high standards and constantly pushed me to reach them.

“What I appreciated about VMI, and have already found at UVA, is tremendous support from professors, staff, and students. From my first interactions I knew that the examples of the inspiring alumni, the expectations of the prestigious professors, and the drive of fellow students in the community would undoubtedly prepare me for my career.

“I am incredibly grateful to Mr. Pate for lessening my financial burden. I consider both him and Mr. Slater to be role models for demonstrating what I can do with my education and the ways I can care for my community. As I progress through my studies I will continue to work hard and orient my career toward service as a tribute to Mr. Slater.”

GIVING TO HOOS DAY

Thanks to amazing alumni support on Giving to Hoos Day, UVA Law surpassed its 1,000 donor goal! More than 1,130 alumni and friends made gifts that day totaling over $328,750. Gifts were made in 41 states and 6 countries.

In honor of their 30th reunion, the Class of 1989 generously matched each gift made that day up to $200—providing over $107,000 in matching funds, and bringing the total to $436,374! These funds are now available to support 63 student organizations; 10 academic journals; 20 hands-on clinics; loan forgiveness funds for recent graduates pursuing public service careers; scholarships; faculty research; and more.

WHY YOU GIVE

Alumni gifts support students like Amy Fly '19, who has gone above and beyond to help others. In May, Fly won the Law School's Pro Bono Award for her graduating class, with 750 hours of service—10 times the requirement.

As a deWilde Fellow at UVA Law, she worked at the Southern Center for Human Rights in Atlanta and has continued her pursuits after graduation as a Robert F. Kennedy Fellow at the ACLU Capital Punishment Project in Durham, N.C.

WHY I GIVE

“When I reflect on my UVA Law experience—from the extraordinary educational experiences provided by some of the best professors in the profession, to the lifelong relationships forged with precious classmates who have become family—it is clear to me that the experience is one of the critical bricks in the foundation of a blessed and some would say successful career. That foundational experience would not have been possible were it not for the generosity of UVA alumni donors. I can only hope that my modest annual donations help contribute to someone else’s journey the way others contributed to mine.”

Tigerron “Tiger” Wells ’04
 Director of Governmental Affairs
 Municipal Association of South Carolina

WHY I GIVE

“My education at UVA was equally intellectually rigorous and personally gratifying. The Law School’s superb faculty, and the clinical experience I gained as a student, continue to inform and inspire my service in the public sector today. I give out of gratitude and to ensure others have the same rich formative opportunities.”

Emily Buckley '09

WHY YOU GIVE

In 1920, the same year American women obtained the right to vote, the first female students matriculated at the Law School. Elizabeth N. Tompkins of Albemarle County was the first to graduate in 1923. After graduation, Tompkins clerked for two years in Charlottesville before relocating to Richmond for a distinguished 54-year legal career. Tompkins was also the first woman admitted to the Virginia State Bar.

Since then, more than 6,000 women have enrolled and pursued their studies at UVA Law. As students, women have been leaders, editing academic journals, winning moot court competitions, earning fellowships and awards, and directing student organizations. As graduates, women have been leaders of the bar, business and academia.

In 1995, female students and graduates led a tribute to the women who came before them, as well as those who would follow, by designating and funding the Law Alumnae Lobby, located to the right of the school's main entrance. In 2004, they paid further tribute to alumnae by creating and funding the Law Alumnae Scholarship, one of the most generously endowed scholarships at the school.

In 2008, Katherine "Kate" Watlington was the inaugural recipient of the Law Alumnae Scholarship. A 2006 graduate of North Carolina State University, she earned a bachelor's in chemical engineering and interdisciplinary studies. She completed a master's degree in environmental engineering at Johns Hopkins University, before working for a year as an engineer at an environmental consulting firm. Upon entering UVA Law, Watlington was selected by an alumnae committee to receive the scholarship.

Today, as senior counsel at McGuireWoods in Charlotte, Watlington serves as a strategic advisor to project sponsors, investors, and financiers in all aspects of the development and financing of power and infrastructure projects globally. For six years prior to joining McGuireWoods she worked with multinational consortiums, infrastructure funds, financial institutions, and state energy utilities to develop and finance infrastructure projects—predominantly in the energy sector in Hong Kong and Singapore.

We checked in with Watlington and asked how her practice has unfolded:

HOW DID YOU GO FROM CLERKING IN VIRGINIA TO PRACTICING FINANCE LAW IN HONG KONG AND SINGAPORE?

I definitely took a non-traditional path after my clerkship. I was planning to return to D.C. where I had summered, but the opportunity to join the project finance practice at Paul Hastings in Hong Kong arose. I have always been interested in Asian culture and wanted to live abroad so I jumped on the chance to move and work on developing and financing energy and infrastructure projects across Asia. I later moved to Singapore with my now husband and joined Latham's project finance practice, where I continued to work on energy and infrastructure projects across Asia, namely Indonesia.

YOUR UNDERGRADUATE BACKGROUND WAS IN THE SCIENCES. IS YOUR LEGAL PRACTICE ON THE DEVELOPMENT AND FINANCING OF THE ENERGY SECTOR A NATURAL OUTGROWTH OF YOUR SCIENCE BACKGROUND?

Definitely! I love being involved with projects from the RFP stage through commercial operation and seeing the turbines go up or the plant being built. The development piece of my work involves negotiating construction contracts, power purchase agreements and other technical contracts. Being comfortable with the technical aspects of these documents certainly makes me more effective.

HAS THERE BEEN A DEAL YOU'VE WORKED ON THAT STANDS OUT IN SOME WAY?

One of the most interesting stories from my time in Asia was negotiating a land use agreement with the Ministry of Forestry of Indonesia for a much needed power plant to be built in West Java. We were all sitting in a conference room in a hotel in Jakarta arguing with the Ministry over the arbitration provisions and the power went out. The irony of the situation—the fact that Indonesia has such critical energy and infrastructure needs juxtaposed against the difficulty of working through government bureaucracy to bring bankable projects online—was not lost on any of the lawyers in room.

HOW DID YOU LAND IN CHARLOTTE, N.C.?

After the birth of our son and having spent over six years abroad, my husband and I started considering a move back to the U.S. to be closer to family. Around that time I had an exciting opportunity to join the debt finance group at McGuireWoods, focusing on project development and finance. McGuireWoods has a tremendous energy practice with a focus on renewables, which was a perfect fit for both my background and career goals, as I had long been interested in focusing on more renewable work. It has been a great transition and we are loving being back in the U.S. and particularly in Charlotte.
