

The Virginia Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers welcomes all students and faculty of the University of Virginia School of Law to join us at our Spring Seminar
Friday, April 20, 2018 in the Caplin Auditorium

- 8:00-8:45 a.m. Registration (no charge; students will need to sign-in with our Exec. Director)
- 8:45-9:00 a.m. Welcome and Announcements
Glen Franklin Koontz, VACDL President-Elect
- 9:00-10:00 a.m. Combat Addiction: The Syndrome and Psycholegal Considerations
Matthew Bowen, Ph.D
- 10:00-10:30 a.m. Recent Updates in Criminal Law from the 2018 General Assembly
Christopher Collins, Esq., Delegate for the 29th District
- 10:30-10:45 a.m. Break (Refreshments provided)
- 10:45-11:45 a.m. “Hot” Topics in Digital Forensics
Sharon Nelson, Esq., President of Sensei Enterprises and John Simek, VP of Sensei Enterprises
- 11:45 a.m. -1:00 p.m. Luncheon for seminar attendees and speakers
- 1:00-2:00 p.m. Litigating Forensics: Probabilities and Error Rates
Brandon L. Garrett, J.D., Sharon Kelley, J.D, Ph.D and Daniel Murrie, Ph.D
- 2:00- 2:45 p.m. Panel Presentation: After “A Rape on Campus”- The Brave New World of Title IX
Justin Dillon, Esq., Barry Meek, Esq., and Palma Pustilnik, Esq., with André Hakes, Esq. as Moderator
- 2:45-3:00 p.m. Break (Refreshments provided)
- 3:00-3:45 p.m. Me Too!—How to Survive Title IX and Use it to Defend Your Client in the Criminal Case
André A. Hakes, Esq.
- 3:45-4:45 p.m. ETHICS HOUR: Ethics in Virginia Appellate Procedure
Elwood Earl “Sandy” Sanders, Jr., Esq.
- 4:45 p.m. Adjournment

Please feel free to attend as many of the segments as your schedule allows!

VACDL offers memberships to 4th year students at a special rate, see our website, www.vacdl.org for more information, or contact our Executive Director, Danielle Payne, at vacdlawyers@gmail.com.